

Please increase the funding for E rate. Many of my students live in rural areas and still have dial up networks at home, making teaching 21st century skill, very difficult. This is requiring class rooms to be split since some students are unable to complete homework assignments at home without the internet.